HMoob [Hmong] Resources Manitowoc, Wisconsin

Released: June 2024

Thank you to the participating organizations for coming together to put this directory together! This could not have been done without FoodWise and everyone's willingness to be photographed.

This document was created by University of Wisconsin-Madison Division of Extension with the FoodWise program located in Manitowoc, WI in conjunction with the included community resources. This resource is to help provide a centralized place for those with low English proficiency, those whom may feel more comfortable to have a familiar face, whom may need larger print, such as the elderly HMong. It is designed to be a resource that can be kept near a phone.

Please contact kryстина.yang@wisc.edu for any changes that may be needed. New directories will be distributed in June if there are significant changes and capacity to do so.
